

IRAM₂ MEMBER CASE STUDY

Conglomerate that has activities in a variety of business sectors including transportation

Challenge

- Isolated and ad hoc assessments
- Inconsistent approaches
- Business impact not assessed
- Lack of effective communication
- Ambiguous accountability

Solution

- Structured and repeatable process utilised and customised templates
- Business Impact Assessment (BIA) ensured engagement and alignment with business priorities
- Summary pages produced for reporting
- Scoping and profiling steps assisted in the identification of asset ownership and classification

Member recommendations

- Well structured, customised IRAM₂ templates made for easy update and engagement from business stakeholders
- Capture organisational risk appetite at the outset to achieve full benefits of using IRAM₂
- Involve stakeholders to ensure understanding of the key terms, concepts and objectives
- Group individual assets and associated components and complete the BIA on the overall scope, to result in a more manageable number of risks being identified
- Leverage the summary pages in the tool to show a high-level risk profile to senior stakeholders
